INITIAL CONSULTATION:

All booked initial consultations will be done by Regulated Canadian Immigration Consultant, Willie Kanu (#R713145), upon receipt of payment of $CAD100 and signing of the initial consultation retainer agreement. The initial consultation is for forty (40) minutes.

GOALS & EXPECTATION OF INITIAL CONSULTATION:

The initial consultation is your opportunity to ask questions to determine your eligibility for different immigration programs, as well as learn about your immigration goals. I will provide relevant information based on your situation and suggest immigration pathways to help you make the right decision for your immigration journey.

Note* I will not answer any follow-up questions upon completion of the initial consultation.

CANCELLATION & RESCHEDULE:

Initial consultation fees are non-refundable. However, if you cancel or reschedule your appointment at least 24 hours prior to the appointment, you will receive a refund minus 15% of the payment for administrative fees. In addition, if you are more than 15 minutes late, the appointment will be cancelled and will not be refunded nor rescheduled. If the Immigration Consultant does not attend, due to illness or emergency, this initial consultation will be rescheduled at the client's convenience within the available hours, at no additional cost.
